External exams are scheduled throughout the academic year and on demand with the appropriate notice adhered to. Head of Departments must liaise with Teachers/Exams Officer to oversee and plan the scheduling of exams for their area. This includes decisions on exams series.

All internal exams are held under external exam conditions.

The Exams Officer will display timetables of all external exams on their notice boards. The Exams Officer will add room details. Allocation of Invigilators will be the responsibility of the Exams Officer.

4. Entries, entry details, late entries and re-sits

4.1 Entries

Normally candidates are selected for their exam entries by the Head of Departments. However, a candidate has the right to request a subject entry, change of level or withdrawal but there would be an expectation that this would be following a discussion with their Subject Teacher.

4.2 Entry details

All individual candidate statements of entry will be given to students after the deadline for entries has passed.

The Exams Officer will accept withdrawals, amendments and changes of tier up to the dates set by the Awarding Organisations. These deadlines are available from the Exams Officer or the Awarding Organisation websites.

4.3 Late entries

Late entries are authorised by SLT/Head of Departments and candidates.

The deadlines for late entries are available from the Exams Officer or the Awarding Organisation websites.

Under extreme circumstances very late entries will be accepted but these will be subject to a fee levied by the Awarding Organisation.

4.4 Re-sits

Re-sit decisions are made in consultation with the Course Tutor, Exams Officer and the candidate.

5. Exam fees

Normal registration and exam fees for the first sitting are paid by the Centre for fully funded candidates with an active enrolment.

Reimbursement of fees will be sought from candidates who do not meet the necessary coursework requirements without medical evidence or proof of other mitigating circumstances.

Late entry or amendment fees are paid by whoever is responsible for the need to make the change.

Re-sit fees are paid by the candidates. This also applies to candidates re-sitting a year already taken and taking units that they sat previously.

6. The Disability and Equality Act, special needs and access arrangements

6.1 Disability and Equality Act

The Learning Support department will inform Subject Tutors of candidates with special educational needs. The Manager can then inform individual staff of any special arrangements that candidates may be granted during the course and in the exam.

6.3 Access arrangements

Candidates who may require access arrangements are identified during the admissions process or enrolment.

Teachers identifying candidates who may require access arrangements after the start of the course should contact the Learning Support Manager at the earliest opportunity. It is the Teacher's responsibility to ensure arrangements are made as soon as possible after the start of the course.

Applying for access arrangements via the JCQ AAO tool is the responsibility of the Head of Senco.

Normal Centre rules on dress and behaviour apply.

Candidates' personal belongings remain their own responsibility and the Centre accepts no liability for their loss or damage.

Disruptive candidates are dealt with in accordance with JCQ guidelines.

Candidates will not be allowed to leave the exam room until the published finishing time.

The Exams Officer staff will attempt to contact any candidate who is not present at the start of an exam and deal with them in accordance with JCQ guidelines.

Students are personally responsible for providing their own equipment for their exams. The Exams Officer provide a minimal amount of 'spare' equipment in each venue but this will only be available to students who have a problem with their own equipment (e.g. breakages during the exam).

9.2 Clash candidates

The supervision of candidates between exams is the responsibility of the Exams Officer. In cases of overnight supervision candidates need to complete the appropriate documentation in accordance with JCQ regulations.

9.3 Special consideration

Should a candidate be too ill to sit an exam, suffer bereavement or other trauma or be taken ill during the exam itself, then it is the candidate's responsibility to alert the centre, Exams Officer or the Exam Invigilator, to that effect.

The candidate must support any special consideration claim with appropriate evidence within seven days of the exam, for example a letter from the candidate's doctor.

If the centre supports the application the Exams Officer will then forward a completed special consideration form to the relevant Awarding Organisation within the JCQ's recommended deadlines.

10. Coursework and appeals against internal assessments

Candidates who have to prepare coursework should do so by the required date.

The Head of Departments will ensure all coursework is marked/internally verified in line with Awarding Organisation requirements. Head of Departments will ensure that all internal verification is completed by centre internal deadlines. The Exams Officer will ensure that the work is despatched at the correct time and that a record of what has been sent, when and to whom is maintained.

Marks for all internally assessed work are provided to the Exams Officer by the Head of Departments. These should be received by the Exams Officer in order to meet the internal Exams Officer Deadline.

10.2 Appeals against internal assessments

The Centre is obliged to publish a separate policy on this subject, which is available from the Exams Officer and on the website.

The main points are:

- Appeals can only be made in relation to the process leading to an assessment. There is no appeal against the assessment decision i.e. the mark or grade awarded.
- Candidates may appeal if they feel their coursework has been assessed unfairly, inconsistently or not in accordance with the specification for the qualification.
- In the first instance the student should raise any concerns about the assessment process with the teacher.
- If the student remains concerned having spoken to their teacher they should contact their Head of Department
- The Head of Department will ask the student to make a written appeal which will be submitted to the relevant SLT. The grounds for the appeal must be clearly stated.
- The findings will be notified in writing, copied to the Head of Centre and recorded for Awarding Organisation inspection.

11. Results, enquiries about results (EARs) and access to scripts (ATS)

11.1 Results

All individual candidate statements of results for General Qualifications received during the course will hand delivered to the students and collected in person from the Exams Officer if requested.

11.2 Enquiries About Results

EARs for General Qualifications may be requested by Centre staff or candidates if there are reasonable grounds for believing there has been an error in marking. The Awarding Organisation's fee is payable by either the candidate or the curriculum area depending on who has requested the EAR.

11.3 Access To Scripts (applicable to General Qualifications only)

After the release of results of General Qualifications, candidates may request the return of papers within the Awarding Organisations' stated deadlines.

Where an Awarding Organisation supplies the requested script electronically, the Exams Officer will send the document to the candidate's email account.

If a result is queried, the Exams Officer in conjunction with teaching staff or Head of Centre will investigate the feasibility of asking for a review at the curriculum areas' expense. Otherwise the candidate will pay for the review themselves. If there is a change in unit grade the candidate will receive a refund from the Exams Officer.

Head of Departments may also request scripts for investigation or for teaching purposes. For the latter, the consent of candidates must be obtained.

12. Certificates

Certificates are posted (by recorded delivery where stipulated by the Awarding Organisation), or collected in person if a candidate requests this.

Certificates may be collected on behalf of a candidate by a third party, provided they have been authorised in writing to do so, and provide their own identification.

Certificates are not withheld from candidates who owe fees.

The school is only obliged to retain certificates for twelve months.
